

Manhattan Fire Protection District Residential Knox Box Program

The Manhattan Fire Protection District has established a Residential Knox Box Loan Program for citizens of the Manhattan Fire Protection District. The objectives of this program are to expedite the paramedics reaching the patient and to minimize or eliminate damage to property by forcible entry.

Residents meeting the following criteria are eligible for the program.

1. The Knox Box can only be used for a Manhattan Fire Protection District resident living within the Fire District.
2. An individual with an existing medical or physical condition which could render him/her unable to open a locked door in an emergency situation.

Knox boxes can be purchased for $231.00 or loaned for $50.00 for a maximum of one year. Upon expiration, applicants can re-apply for an additional year. A one time, refundable $50.00 deposit is required and the Knox Box MUST be returned if for any reason it is no longer needed.

Obtaining a Residential Knox Box

1. Individual must meet the above mentioned existing condition criteria.
2. Contact the Fire Department at 815/478-3197 to determine if a Knox box is available for loan or purchase and to make an appointment
3. Fill out the form and sign paperwork. If a box is available, the refundable $50.00 or purchase price of $231.00 is required at that time. (Cash or Check accepted. Make checks payable to Manhattan Fire Protection District).
4. Bring the required residence keys to the Fire Department when picking up the Knox Box.
5. Install the Knox box properly on an approved entrance door as per the Fire Protection District.
